

Senior Musculoskeletal Physiotherapist

Occupational Health Physiotherapy Opportunity

Good Country Physiotherapy has an exciting opportunity for an experienced musculoskeletal physiotherapist to join our team in the Limestone Coast region of South Australia. This new permanent full-time salaried position has a key focus on occupational health physiotherapy and is ideally suited to someone who has experience in this area, or an interest in developing skills in it.

We have existing strong long-term relationships with several large employers in our region, and provide early intervention onsite clinics, worksite assessments, pre-employment screenings and a range of other occupational physiotherapy services. This position would be the clinical lead in this area, with scope to develop new opportunities to grow the service further.

Based in the large regional centre of Naracoorte, some travel would be required as part of the role, with a travel allowance available. We offer generous funding for professional development, on top of a well above-award salary (range $80,000-$90,000) plus super, based on your skills and experience. The start date is flexible, but immediate start is preferable.

Benefits of working in our region:

- Between Adelaide and Melbourne
- No traffic lights or traffic jams (!!!)
- Cheap cost of living – current median house price in Naracoorte $260,000 (2 bedroom)
- Access to locally grown fresh food, clean water, excellent sporting and recreation facilities, quality education and health services
- Close to tourist regions for your family and friends to visit – Coonawarra, Robe, Grampians
- Close to the second largest city in South Australia (Mt Gambier)
- Close working relationship with other health workers in the region
